Explore Before or After the Festival: Our Favourite Places in & around Altona

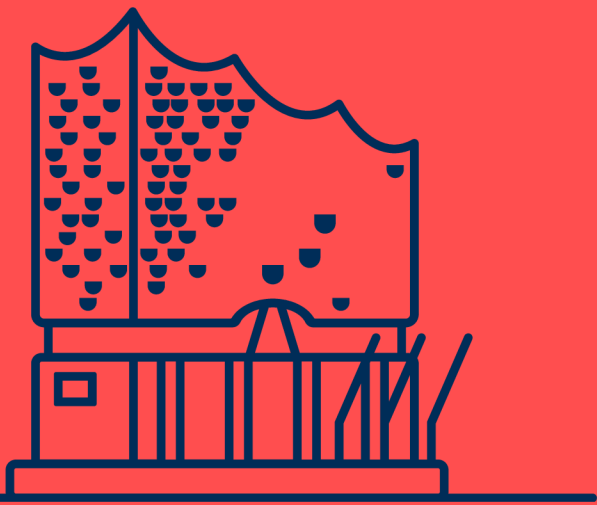

After an exciting festival day, take the chance to discover more of Hamburg! Here are some must-visit locations in and around Altona that are perfect for a winter adventure and that for the past 10 years of my living here are my favourite spots in Hamburg:

Altona Fish Market (Sunday morning, 5–9:30 AM)

A true Hamburg tradition! Whether you're an early riser or ending your night out, enjoy fresh fish, fruit baskets, and live music right by the Elbe.

📍 Address: Große Elbstraße 9, 22767 Hamburg

🚆 How to get there: S-Bahn S1, S2, or S3 to Königstraße + 10 min walk

Elbe Beach & Övelgönne

Even in winter, a walk along the Elbe beach is wonderful. Stroll past the historic museum ships at Övelgönne and warm up in a cozy café like Strandperle.

📍 Address: Övelgönne 60, 22605 Hamburg (Strandperle Café)

🚆 How to get there: Take public transport ferry Line 62 from Landungsbrücken to Neumühlen/Övelgönne + 3 min walk

Dockland & Viewpoint

This futuristic glass building right on the Elbe offers breathtaking panoramic views of the harbor – stunning at sunset or with city lights at night.

📍 Address: Van-der-Smissen-Straße 9, 22767 Hamburg

🚆 How to get there: Bus 111 to Kreuzfahrtterminal Altona + 3 min walk

Old Elbe Tunnel

Opened in 1911, this underground tunnel connects the Landungsbrücken piers with Steinwerder. Walking through the 426-meter tunnel offers a unique harbor view on the other side.

📍 Address: Bei den St. Pauli Landungsbrücken, 20359 Hamburg

🚆 How to get there: U-Bahn U3 or S-Bahn S1, S2, S3 to Landungsbrücken

Jenisch Park & Jenisch House

A peaceful winter stroll in a beautiful park along the Elbe. The historic Jenisch House is an elegant 19th-century mansion with exhibitions on interior design and art history.

📍 Address: Jenischpark, 22609 Hamburg / Jenisch House: Baron-Voght-Straße 50, 22609 Hamburg

🚆 How to get there: S-Bahn S1 or S11 to Klein Flottbek + 5 min walk

Winter Stroll in Marktstraße & Schanzenviertel

Explore the Schanzenviertel district, home to small boutiques, alternative shops, and cozy cafés – perfect for a relaxed afternoon.

📍 Address: Marktstraße, 20357 Hamburg (for boutique shopping) / Schanzestraße, 20357 Hamburg (for bars & cafés)

🚆 How to get there: U-Bahn U3 to Feldstraße (for Marktstraße) or S11, S21, S31 to Sternschanze

Harbor Tour from Altona or Landungsbrücken

Discover Hamburg from the water! Even in winter, boat tours are a great experience. Some ships offer heated indoor seating.

📍 Starting points: Landungsbrücken (main boat tour operators) or Altona

🚆 How to get there: U-Bahn U3 or S-Bahn S1, S2, S3 to Landungsbrücken

💡 Budget option: You can also take a harbor tour using Hamburg's public transport ferries (Ferry Line 62, 61 or 72)!

🎫 Important: Public transport ferries require an HVV ticket (Hamburg's public transport system). A standard AB day ticket works for unlimited ferry rides!
